

BRIDGE OWNERS TO SELL SPAN ACROSS RIVER AT TRENTON

Calhoun Street Bridge Owners
Accept Offer of $250,000
Made by Commission

WILL BE FREED SOON

Funds Ready to Complete The Deal — Board Bids For Two Others

TRENTON, N. J., Apr. 7.—Freeing of the Calhoun Street Bridge of toll charges for traffic may occur within a month or so, if the customary plan of the Delaware River Free Bridge Commission is followed in purchase of the span known here as the "upper bridge." The lower span at Bridge Street has been without tolls for several years.

Counselor Harry Heher, of this city, attorney for the Calhoun Street Bridge owners, yesterday sent formal notice to Gordon Cooper, of Lambertville, secretary of the Free Bridge Commission, that the offer of $250,000 made by the board a week ago to acquire the structure would be accepted.

As soon as Mr. Heher's notice reaches him, Mr. Gordon said he would notify Samuel S. Lewis, of York, Pa., chairman of the bridge board, who would likely call a meeting of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey members in about two weeks to close the proposal. In past years various bridges over the Delaware above Trenton, which have been bought from joint funds supplied by the two States, have been immediately freed of toll charges when agreements to purchase were signed. Owners of these bridges do not get their payment until an official survey of the span property is made and deeds are drawn. These are sent to the Attorney Generals of both States for approval before they are recorded.

This detail may be completed within a month, unless complications over ownership of the bridge property arises, it is said. On other spans acquired by the commission, the previous owners have consented to eliminate toll collections upon signing of purchase agreements. If this plan is followed here, the Calhoun Street Bridge may be freed within the month.

With freeing of the span it is anticipated that traffic over it would increase considerably and that some repairs would be required at once to handle it. The bridge board has already made a survey of the span and estimates that a complete overhauling of the structure would cost $75,000 at some future time, but only enough work would be done upon purchase to strengthen and make the span safe for extra travel. A new "lower bridge" here is now being built at cost of about $700,000.

At present the Free Bridge Commission has on hand $174,000 allotted by each State of Pennsylvania and New Jersey to purchase bridges over the Delaware, and each State has set aside an additional $100,000 available on next July 1 to buy more spans during 1928 and 1929. Also on next July 1 each State will award $75,000 for maintenance of all bridges procured by the board. The repairing of the Calhoun Street Bridge would be started from funds on hand.

At the bridge board's session last week, in addition to the offer for the Calhoun Street span, there was also debated the purchase of the bridge at Milford, for which the owners asked $55,000, and at Frenchtown, for which the owners urged $50,000. These rates were regarded as high by the bridge board, as well as the $260,000 requested by the Calhoun Street bridge owners, and 30 days were allowed for a reconsideration.

The board consented at that session to pay $250,000 for the Calhoun Street structure, but stated no figures for the other two. It was pointed out that the Milford bridge is of wooden type, while one of steel at Washington Crossing had been acquired for $40,000, and a steel suspension bridge at Riegelsville for $50,000. The Frenchtown structure, it was stated, contains three wooden spans and two of steel. Since the session, the people residing near Lumberton, further up the river, have urged that the bridge there be freed, but no definite action has been taken on this as yet.

Counselor Heher will prepare the necessary legal papers for sale of the Calhoun Street span as soon as the bridge board approves the acceptance of the recent offer, he stated yesterday. Mr. Heher is counsel for both the bridge owners and bond holders and they left it with him to negotiate the deal. The owners include the estates of two deceased bankers, Sidney S. Wright, and Frederick Snyder, who lately died, as well as two other bond owners. The firm is known as the Trenton City Bridge Company.

CORNWELLS LAD GIVEN MONEY AND MEDAL PRIZE

John McIntyre, of St. Charles School, Writes Best Essay

PROGRAM IS GIVEN

A silver medal as well as money in the amount of $15 was presented to John McIntyre, a pupil of St. Charles School, Cornwells Heights, on Tuesday, for honors won recently in submitting to the Colonial Dames of America the best essay from Bucks County on "Hannah Penn."

The presentation took place in the school auditorium and was made by Miss Frances Landreth, a representative of the Colonial Dames in Bucks County.

The youth, who is a student in the eighth grade, wrote upon "Hannah Penn and What She Did for Pennsylvania." Six essays were received in the contest by the society, and in perusing the many that were submitted the judges decided upon McIntyre's as being the best from the county.

A letter of congratulation accompanied the returned essays to the school. Miss Landreth was chairman of the prize essay committee of Bucks County.

The program presented on Tuesday in connection with the presentation of the money and medal was as follows: "One Nation" children; piano selection, Ruth Kenny; address, Rev. Francis J. Flood; presentation by Miss Landreth; "Star-Spangled Banner," children.

In his address the Rev. Flood congratulated the winner, and remarked that he considered it a great honor not only for St. Charles' Schools, but for the county as well.

The school is conducted by the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The Rev. Flood is pastor.

The essay written by young McIntyre was sent to the Colonial Dames in Philadelphia, and will be judged by the committee there with the best one from each of the other counties of the State.

"HE IS RISEN" THE MESSAGE OF LONG AGO, STILL RINGS WITH GLADNESS IN THE HEARTS OF MANKIND EVERYWHERE

Message Comes With Equal Force to Each Individual — Story
Of the Rise from the Tomb Will Be Retold
Tomorrow in Churches Everywhere

"He Is Risen."
This joyous message which fell from the lips of the angel as he declared the resurrection of the Christ nearly two centuries ago has been ringing through the years with a gladness that does not diminish but that is added to with the passing of the years.

It was with sorrow that Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, approached the tomb where the body of their Lord had been laid. They had but one purpose in their hearts—to do for their Master the last personal service they thought possible.

The Word tells us that following that up-lifting brief message "They went out quickly . . . and he appeared unto them."

The message comes to each one just as plainly and with equal force today. For each "He is risen as he said."

With His appearance later to the chosen twelve following his rise from the tomb, he gave one of the last commands of service "Go ye . . . and tell." He sought not his own glory, but the glory of the Father. He wished that mankind everywhere might know of the Father Love, and so the command was given.

The words were not spoken for the disciples alone but for posterity. It is the will of the Father that each human being should be the messenger of the tidings of his love and the fact that "He is risen."

In song and story will the message be given throughout the land tomorrow. In many churches will the choirs and pastor attempt to portray His character, His love and the story of His crucifixion and rise.

Many edifices in this borough and surrounding communities will be gayly decorated with Spring blooms and green plants in keeping with the occasion.

Zion Lutheran Church, Jefferson avenue and Wood street, has the Easter services arranged as here shown: Sunrise service at 6 o'clock, with celebration of the Lord's Supper; Sunday School, 10 a. m.; morning worship, 11, with communion and baptism; evening service in charge of the Sunday School, at 7:45 o'clock. At the latter service there will be presented a pageant entitled, "Post Resurrection Sermon." The Rev. Paul R. Ronge, M. A., is pastor of the Zion Church.

Sunday School will commence the Sunday services in the First Baptist Church, this taking place at 10 a. m. The subject which the Rev. Howard L. Zepp, pastor, has chosen for discussion at the morning service at 11 is "The Easter Light." There will be two evening meetings, the B. Y. P. U. at seven and the regular service at 7:45. The theme for the evening service will be "The Emerging Christ." The ordinance of baptism will be administered in the evening.

On Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock the Mission Circle will hold its session in the Sunday School room. Miss Hazel Barney, missionary from China, will be the afternoon guest. Tea will be served at the church and the ladies will remain for the evening service. The prayer meeting will be in charge of Miss Barney and will begin at eight.

"Glorious Victory" is the title of an Easter service which the Second Baptist Church will conduct tomorrow night at eight o'clock. This will be preceded by B. Y. P. U. meeting at seven. The other two services for the day are sermon, "The Glad Easter Message" (Text John 20:17) by the Rev. E. D. Fells, at 11 a. m., and Sunday School at 1 p. m.

A musical program has been arranged for the Methodist Church for tomorrow, Easter Sunday. At the service at 10:30 there will be the following numbers:

RAID CROYDON FARM ON WIFE'S COMPLAINT

Woman Alleges Husband and Rival Make and Sell
Whiskey

BOTH ARE UNDER BAIL

A man and a woman living on a farm along the State Road, Croydon, near Maple Beach, were taken into custody last night by Officer H. Lincoln Hughes. The raid on the place was made at the instigation of the man's wife, who went before Justice Laughlin and had warrants issued.

Those under arrest are Sophie Kowzicka and Peter Domowich. They are under $500 bail each on the charge of adultery and $1,000 bail each on the charge of possessing liquor. They will be given a further hearing at 7:30 p. m., April 18th, before Justice Laughlin.

It appears that Peter Domowich and his wife Olga have been married 20 years. Things went well until about a year ago, according to the wife in her information lodged with the justice. The family then moved to the farm owned by Sophie Kowzicka on the State Road. It was but a short while before Peter's affections for his wife began to wane. It became so that Peter divided his house. He and Sophie took one side of the house while Peter's wife and children were told to stay on the opposite side.

Yesterday, Peter's wife went before Justice Laughlin and swore to information to the effect that whiskey was being made on the place and sold there. The wife said that her husband had told her to get out and get herself another husband. She was forced to go to work.

When Officer Hughes searched the farm he found a five gallon jug of whiskey, one-quarter pint and one pint bottle full. He was unable to find any still and is of the opinion that it had been moved from the place after Peter's wife left.

SWIMMING POOL NEARS COMPLETION AT TRAPPE

Cost Placed at $125,000;
Water Capacity 400,000
Gallons

PLAN FOR APPARATUS

Workmen on the Lincoln Highway near the Trappe Hotel are rapidly pushing forward work on the new $125,000 highway swimming pool.

The size of this, another one of the several pools that dot the highway between New York and Philadelphia, will be 75 by 175 feet, having a capacity for 400,000 gallons of water. Speaking of the project today, Dr. Harold Holt, of 4912 North Seventh Street, Philadelphia, told that over 200 people could easily be handled. "We are expecting to take care of many times that number daily through the warm summer months, however," he said.

The pool, which is to be of concrete, will be supplied with water by three wells, which are now being drilled. Everything that can possibly be secured for the comfort and convenience of the patrons will be attended to. It is assured by the owner, George Downs, of Philadelphia. Apparatus such as a raft, three diving boards, a slide, etc., will be placed. The depth of the water will range from two feet at one end of the rectangular hole to 10 feet at the opposite end.

It is expected that the place will be opened to the public by May 30th. Digging and drilling work commenced several weeks ago.

By the pool there are also being erected bath-houses for the use of the patrons. This main building will measure 225 by 49 feet. The concrete foundation has been laid, and the structure is of wood. One side will be used by the women and another portion by the men.

Parking space has not been neglected, and ground will be levelled and arranged to accommodate machines as soon as the other projects are completed.

EASTER

Never did the world need the essential meaning and the spiritual stimulus of Easter more than in this year of grace. On every hand are those whom the state of the world disheartens. We are told, if we listen to their lamentation, that religion has failed, that the plain, homely virtues of faith and loving kindness and mercy as between men and their fellows are dead or inoperative, and in this vale of tears the mourners are the most sensible of mortals, since there is no reason to rejoice in anything we hear or see.

To such an attitude of mind Easter comes as a shining and a beautiful refutation, as an angel seen by those who are in sorrow round a tomb. Easter is not to be observed merely as the commemoration of a triumph over the grave, a victory over death, nineteen centuries ago. It stands for the glory and the power of a resurrection here and now—a rebirth day, of the springing of new life in this glad hour for "a confident tomorrow." The meaning of the festival is not to be confined with the ceremony of any sect or any ritual. It cannot all be told in music or in flowers or in the wings and fire of the most eloquent of sermons. It is not all in the glow of the hour of prayer and praise and song. It goes far deeper than words can utter; it reaches the deepest of the truths we know, at the very heart of our human lives, in their need of that which is higher than ourselves, and in their aspiration toward that which is true eternally.

It is each man's resurrection and not that of Christ alone on which this day insists forever. It is in your power and mine to cast off what is of the earth earthly, that holds us down to the mundane and the material. Easter is the freedom and light, the upspringing joy of the emancipation of the soul of man. Least of all the festivals is it a time for selfish introspection, for the backward look and the unprofitable resemblance of failure and disaster, the sin besetting and the shame disfiguring the pattern of our human lives. It is, instead, the time for the looking and thinking and acting beyond and away from ourselves.

As in the solemn and beautiful jubilee we consider the lilies, and hear the music, and feel the inspiration of the sermon and enter into the radiance and the rapture of the morning, let us take thought how we may impart to other lives and bring to other hearts the joy we feel, knowing that as we are ministered unto it is our duty to minister and to spread abroad the message of the Eastertide to a world that needs all the cheer that any has to give.

Every growing town passes through a stage when it yearns to be called "The Convention City."

The old-fashioned home life would be a tame existence for most members of this generation.

Some persons may be interested in work for work's sake, but most of us want to see the pay envelope.

Who remembers back to the time when virtually all the bobs were worn by typhoid convalescents and mules?

If you must park beside a fire place, it is better, all things considered, to join the fire department in the first place.

Day after day it becomes more apparent that the unrivaled popularity of the Bigger and Better Chevrolet is due to its basic elements of superiority.

And the greatest factor of all is the effortless driving it provides. It steers with the weight of the hand—for the worm and gear steering mechanism is fitted with ball bearings throughout... even at the front axle knuckles. The clutch is velvety smooth in action and the gear-shift lever responds to the lightest touch. Acceleration is swift and certain, while big non-locking four-wheel brakes assure perfect control under every condition of highway and traffic.

You'll never know what a great car it is until you sit at the wheel and drive! So come in today for a demonstration!

REJOICE in the Lord always, and again I say, rejoice!" St. Paul's words will find glad echo on Easter Sunday; for millions will come from out the tombs of passion, pride, doubt or despair into the sunlight of a new morning.

As Christ triumphed over death, so our faith will conquer temptations and trials. We will come closer to Christ; we will hear His message proclaimed from our pulpits; and we will realize anew the spiritual benefits of church attendance on Easter Sunday and every Sunday. When all denominations teach the glory of God, what matters it where we attend church, AS LONG AS WE ATTEND? So in whatever Bristol Church we worship this year, the Easter lilies will be taken from the altar and transplanted into the hearts of men, there to bloom permanently.
